

Jo Watson – Canvas Art

Based in Trentham, Staffordshire, Jo started her artistic career at Bournville College of Art & Design before gaining a BA (Hons) Degree in Graphic Design at the University of Central England. Jo has produced her own original paintings since 2004 occasionally displaying work in local galleries and exhibitions. She is inspired by colour and enjoys using photography as an initial tool to capture special moments. She loves nature, dramatic landscapes and the impact that light can have in a painting.

At a special 'Pawfect Pack' 10% discounted price, Jo is offering our customers the opportunity to have an everlasting portrait of your beloved pet in a personally commissioned painting. Jo doesn't just paint a 'breed' she aims to capture the likeness and character of your pet making every portrait truly unique and special to you.

Working from photographs in acrylics on canvas Jo hand draws and paints every detail keeping you updated along the way with regular emails. The whole process from initial consultation to framing (if required) takes approximately 4-6 weeks depending on her waiting list and time of year...leading up to Christmas can be really busy. Each original painting comes with a signed certificate of authenticity.
