Vantage Point Creative

Located in the beautiful canal town of Stone, Vantage Point Creative have quickly established themselves as a leading framing and print provider for the consumer. With a large frame choice to cater for styles and budgets, each frame is hand assembled on site. Quality is paramount with no jobs leaving without being checked. Vantage Point have worked with many artists and photographers including . . . Jo Watson.

"We love what we do and treat your work as if it our own, therefore time and care is taken to make it look perfect" - Adam Marszalek, Owner.

As a dog friendly business, we happily allow our four-legged friends into the shop. All employees here at Vantage Point happen to have pet dogs so striking a relationship with your dog only brightens up our day even more.

As a special 'Pawfect Pack' member, Adam is offering That's Pawfect customers 10% off all their services!
